Sub: Third party use of storage shed for non-bulk storage of petroleum products licensed under Petroleum Rules 2002 - reg

License for storage of petroleum under Rule 141 of Petroleum Rules 2002, is issued in the name of applicant, who has registered lease deed/ sale deed of land in his name for legal Physical possession of the premises.

The licensee may allow use of storage spaces by 3rd party logistics companies and allow sharing of storage space with multiple users subject to the compliance of provisions of Petroleum Rules 2002 and conditions of the license.

The responsibility of compliance of the petroleum Rules rests with the licensee, in whose name the license is issued. It may be noted that the storage quantity shall not exceed the licensed capacity.

If the licensee ceases to have any right to the site for storing petroleum, Rule 152 of Petroleum Rules shall be applicable.

The above provisions do not absolve the licensee from obtaining necessary approvals/clearances from other statutory authorities as applicable.
