

Recognition of Competent Person Under Petroleum Rules, 2002

- Recognition as competent person is required under Petroleum Rules, 2002 for testing and certification under rule 126 and 130 and for countersigning Part-B of Form VII and VIII for certification of petroleum tank lorries and bowsers / refuellers respectively.
 - Qualification, experience and other requirements are set forth in Part A of Form XX.
 - Application is to be submitted in Part B of Form XX of Petroleum Rules together with two passport size photographs, a scrutiny fee of Rs.5000/- per Competent Person per year to be paid through the Bharatkosh portal (<https://bharatkosh.gov.in/>) by selecting appropriate options as below- (Transaction receipt generated after successful payment may also be attached)
 - Ministry: Industry,
 - Purpose: Receipt under Petroleum & Explosives Act
 - Drawing & Disbursing Office: 226191
- (This organisation website <https://peso.gov.in/> may be referred for step by step instruction about payment through the Bharatkosh portal.)
- The Chief Controller of Explosives registers such applications and within 60 days either recognition is granted or the application is rejected specifying reasons therefore.
 - After complete application is received, the date and time of interview is intimated well in advance to the applicants.
 - Technical discussions related to the knowledge about rules, related national / international codes/specifications, processes / procedures, safe practices etc is held during interview and capability.
 - Recognition is granted after concurrence of Chief Controller of Explosives on the decision of the board.

By Order

Sd/-

Chief Controller of Explosives